Newsblur is a blog that aggregates news stories from around the Web based on your interests and social networking data. It allows you to create a "Newsfeed" based on your favorite topics, and share it with friends. If you're reading this review you must be a GeekFeed Member. I've been a member for about a month and have not regretted it at all. In fact, I've only gotten more enthusiastic about it. I'm not saying it's not for you, but it may not be the best fit. Anyway, if you are interested in this, you must join GeekFeed right now. All you have to do is go here and sign up. Don't worry, it won't take more than a minute, and you can even read my review while you're signing up.
