The couple says they want to “apply the lessons” of their environmentally friendly wedding to their new home in Washington. “We’re big believers in sustainability,” said Mrs. Obama, the former Michelle Robinson. “This is sort of our homage to that. We’ve gone through what we thought were the most eco-friendly venues. We’ve gone through a place that uses biodegradable linens. We’ve gone through a place that uses reeds for the reception and china for the salad. It’s a great wedding gift.” According to the White House, the Obamas will move into the Blair House — the guest residence located on the White House grounds — after their one-year stay in the West Wing. “Once we move into the White House, our attention turns to the dedication of my new executive office, which is named for Dorothy Height,” Mrs. Obama said. Posted by SpoumFF at 2017-06-23 16:40 (View all comments by SpoumFF) We need more travel and world lore. No one is familiar with the lands and no one has ever been here. We need to add more exploration mechanics. We need something to really challenge you with as you explore or kill monster[...]

Posted by osvromu at 2017-08-17 13:27 (View all comments by osvromu) Hoping to check out the game soon. I'm not a fan of fighting games or JRPGs, but I'd be interested in a narrative-heavy game that's not quite a JRPG, but not quite an action game. So thanks for the heads-up, I'll keep an eye out for it.

I hope the team gets stronger because the visual style is really catchy and the gameplay has been really fun so far! I will give it a shot on PS4 if they keep up their development pace!

Posted by Oderus at 2017-09-08 04:21 (View all comments by Oderus) Thanks for the info. I was starting to think it may have been cancelled. The game has already been talked about enough on here so I hope that it gets the recognition it deserves. Posted by olivoaxolpe at 2017-09-10 20:46 (View all comments by olivoaxolpe) @Spleen04 : I don't know where you got that part of the development, but it's total lies. Several people have done that. It's just a lie. @SpoumFF: We're trying to work on new features and graphic as soon as possible. We're already launching the public server, and it's the first step that we are doing to show the high quality game. So it's normal that we need a good performance on PC for now, but we're going to update it. (Especially on bff6bb2d33
